

Roger J. Piggott

CEO – ICEMAN Productions Inc.

THE STARS FOUNDATION- International Marketing, Events, & Television Broadcast Director

Roger J. Piggott is the CEO of Iceman Productions Inc. At present, Roger is better known as the largest independent producer of sanctioned Long Drive Golf television shows in the world, representing broadcast relations in 46 countries. With more than 550 episodes in his portfolio, Roger produces and coordinates a series of prime time sports and entertainment taped delayed television programming. Regularly scheduled broadcasts include; Offshore Powerboat Racing, Geoff Bodine's (NASCAR) Legends in Sports, International Golf, and high profile charity related syndicated broadcasts.

As an avid golfer and alpine promotions expert, Roger is better known as "The Iceman" at the highest profiled destination Alpine ski centers throughout North America and at five-star Golf and Spa Resorts throughout the Caribbean. The Iceman was commissioned to host The Challenge World Tour. Visiting 30 of North America's highest profiled ski resorts, the Iceman quickly gained credibility as the voice of international ski and snowboard events heard by millions of alpine enthusiasts worldwide.

Accolades received from the governing bodies tied to the game of golf include The Royal Canadian Golf Association, United States Golf Association and numerous Governmental agencies and Tourism boards throughout the Western hemisphere.

Regular news & sports reels, resort promotional videos and network broadcasters alike have featured the works of Roger J. Piggott - "The Iceman". He is frequently asked to speak across Canada and the USA with both the American and Canadian cancer top associations as a thriving cancer survivor. He is also on the board of directors for The Stars Foundation, an entertainment industry humanitarian aid organization based in the USA.